Founder, President and Chief Executive Officer
Enfora, L.P.

Under the leadership of founder, President and Chief Executive Officer, Mark Weinzierl, Enfora has become a global provider of leading edge wireless solutions for both the enterprise and consumer markets. Enfora has established key supplier and partner relationships with companies the caliber of Texas Instruments, Cingular, T-Mobile and LeapFrog Enterprises, Inc. Enfora has recently developed TicTalk™, a parent-controlled cell phone for kids age 6 and up that allows parents to stay connected to their kids.

Mr. Weinzierl founded Enfora in 1999 after acquiring the wireless data assets of Inet Technologies, where he was executive vice president, one of the company's co-founders and a key member of management that led the company through its successful IPO. Mr. Weinzierl also spent time with a leading defense contractor, Electrospace Systems, from 1986-1989. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Iowa State University and attended the University of Texas at Dallas MBA program. In his spare time, Mark enjoys spending time with his wife and five-year-old son.
